

Raman Jee Jha

Raman is a Director in the Oil & Gas Industry Practice of PwC India. He has over 15 years of professional experience largely focused on oil and gas industry consulting. Raman has advised governments, multilateral agencies, public and private corporations on oil & gas policy & regulatory design and implementation, regional and bilateral cooperation between countries, R&D and innovation policies, developing fiscal policies to attract investment in country's oil and gas sector, investment promotions, financial and commercial advisory, Industrial engineering etc.